Wait
Stay here and have a drink of time
A drink of time

Wait
Before you split yourself in two
There's time for you

And if you travel here
You will feel it all
The brightest and the darkest
And if you travel here
Listen to your heart
And take with you what lasts forever

Sleep
And dream a dream of when you fly
When you fly

See
Through traveler's eyes want to give
To love and give

And if you travel here
You will feel it all
The brightest and the darkest
And if you travel here
Listen to your heart
And take with you what lasts forever

And if you travel here
You will feel it all
The brightest and the darkest
And if you travel here
Listen to your heart
And take with you what lasts forever
Ohhh...
