For every grain of sugars here's a pound a salt
To melt away all the shit this country shoved down my throat
No, I won't ever cave or curl nothing I do's my fault
I'm a victim of sobriety in 50 states on drugs

For every act of love I attack assault
Ya, I destruct because I'm fucked I just won't give up
And some may say I'm stubborn and I won't grow up
But I think you're all just used to having that ass tore up

Ya, you're part of the disease in a government corrupt Toxic waste corporate sleaze destroying everything you touch
Mother bleeds we deceived seek in Gods creed we trust
We looking up hogs we feed smog fogs and clouds our thoughts

Though I saw a flag with stars and stripes that stood for equal rights
Civil liberties pursuit of happiness in life
Now I know were all just hoes spokes on a wheel of fortune
Lost tones in a song eternal souls scorching 'cause your

Government loves you so sleep now rest assured
Your taxes make prisoners of war around the world
They'll mind warp and drug you rape your little girl
Your government loves you so sleep now rest assured

Let's take a little trip back in time to remember Why your government loves you they'd do anything fight and die for you Operation mongoose couldn't shoot Castro
But got Martin Luther King blasted back in '68

'Cause they was afraid he was of communist regime
A black man with a dream of peace and equality
Was surely a threat to USA's economy of glutton war
Greed ace of spades Vietnamese oil brigades

And now the same shit today different presidential candidates
Same goal global control of the Middle East
Hey, there's only a few more nations left to enslave
We need some more fancy clothes and golden roads paved now

Government loves you so sleep now rest assured
Your taxes make prisoners of war around the world
They'll mind warp and drug you rape your little girl
Your government loves you so sleep now rest assured

2052 is the year
Now that the nuclear snow has cleared
It's time to announce the new world order is here
I am George Bush Senior the third
Your genetically engineered fascist leader
You are now ruled by a living computer

You are one race, one sec, one fuck, one money
On a space ship to Mars
Noah's arch no holds barred This planet will explode in T-minus 4, 'cause your

Government loves you so sleep now rest assured
Your taxes make prisoners of war around the world
They'll mind warp and drug you rape your little girl
Your government loves you so sleep now rest assured

Love you
Love you
Love you
Love you
