Today is more than me
The disarray of things that I can only hold or see
For today You shine Your light
What You say that's more than words is spoken in Your eyes

Colors in array
Will show themselves before we fly away
Colors in array

For love and for the day
For love, for truth, for life, and all eternity
For this song You shine Your light
For this song that's more than words will reach into Your eyes

Colors in array
Colors in array
[x2]
