"So Close, So Far"

Here, I'm a stranger in love
With kindness, in love with your kindness
Home, you're the scent of home
When you're near me,
I'm home when you're near me

So close, so far and so familiar
Is where you end
And where you came from

Sweet, as they fall from your lips
Like snowflakes, they fall like the snowflakes
Dream, and the deeper you dream
You are closer
To home you are closer

So close, so far and so familiar
Is where you end
And where you came from
