This is the life
The life of huge and small
Forces blind or they guide you to shore
You're alive and you pour your heart like you should
I know you'd step back and see if you could
Don't whisper, don't wait

Sing out this hour
Sing out this restless hour
Sing out, sing out, and let it go
Sing on this time
Sing on this lovely time
Sing on, sing on, and let it go

This is the life
Your soul is just what they seek
You feel the clash but you scarcely can see
Love is alive and is pouring down like a flood
I know you'd step back and see if you could
Don't whisper, don't wait

Sing out this hour
Sing out this restless hour
Sing out, sing out, and let it go
Sing on this time
Sing on this lovely time
Sing on, sing on, and let it go

It's your turn, it's yours now
You are free, to capture your daylight
[x2]

Sing on this time
Sing on this lovely time
Sing on, sing on and let it go
