I might feel a little, feel a little better in the day time
I might feel a little, feel a little better if I told you why
I'd feel better if I told you why
I'd feel better if I told you why

I might say a little, say a little something if you don't mind
I might say a little, say a little too much in the meantime
I'm saying too much in the meantime
I'm saying too much in the meantime

Would it change your mind if I did good?
Would it change your mind if I did bad?
Would it change your mind?
Where is love?

I'm so tired of working
For so long to be loved
I'm so tired of working so long
Oh, I'm tired of working to be loved

I might see a little, see a little better if I just get out
I might see a little, see a little better if I saw you now
I'll see you better if I saw you now

I might trust a little, trust a little if I didn't test you out
I might trust a little, trust you but you're gonna have to show me how
You're gonna have to show me how

Would it change your mind if I did good?
Would it change your mind if I did bad?
Would it change your mind?
Where is love?

I'm so tired of working
For so long to be loved
I'm so tired of working so long
Oh, I'm tired of working to be loved

I'm so tired of working
For so long to be loved
I'm so tired of working so long
Oh, I'm tired of working to be loved
