One and ten, the way you hang your hair
Cool and chique, the perfume that you wear
You walk, I sigh, you're always in my eyes You talk, I try to make you realize that I've been loving you, loving you, loving you so long (Oh, so long)
And when I talk to you baby, the words just come out wrong (Come so wrong)
You said I want you, I want you, this feeling is so strong
(Oh, so strong)
And now you're driving me crazy, you're burning me up with love
Desire
(You're driving me crazy with) Desire
(I'm burning, I'm burning with) Desire
(You're driving me crazy with) Desire

Spend my time tryin' to find a strategy
Pearls and wine just show you what I mean
Your eyes, your smile, they bring me to my knees Stay a while so I can make you see that I've been loving you, loving you, loving you so long (Oh, so long)
And when I talk to you baby, the words just come out
wrong (Come so wrong)
You said I want you, I want you, this feeling is so strong
(Oh, so strong)
And now you're driving me crazy, you're burning me up
with love
Desire
(You're driving me crazy with) Desire
(I'm burning, I'm burning with) Desire
(Yeah, you're driving me crazy with) Desire

Desire
(You're driving me crazy with) Desire
(I'm burning, I'm burning with) Desire
(Yeah, you're driving me crazy with) Desire
