Gone, missing all the lost and lonely eyes
Well, isn't that to come as no surprise?
Well it came to me
Sunlight
Begging me to leave this room and grow
And the carpet
Leading us to god knows who might know
It waits for you
And it waits for me too

That's just the way it goes
Stars won't tell me how I move
It's all just a matter of time
And it waits for me
And it waits for you too

So isn't it a wonder no-one knows?
The cold entry to the cold and empty soul
Well it came to me
Starlight
Begging me to leave this room and glow
And the streetlights
Leading us to god know who might know
It waits for you
And it waits for me too

That's just the way it goes
Stars won't tell me how I move
It's all just a matter of time
That's just the way I feel
Fools won't fool me
Now I know
It's all just a matter of time
And it waits for me
And it waits for you too
