You dance in the courtyards and you sing in the rain
And you spin yourself round and around and around again, yes you do

So you don't need me and I don't need you So why is your glass half empty and why is mine so full to the brim?

Well you cry in the movies and I laugh at the same And when I'm high then you move me and you move me back down again, yes you do

So I don't need you and you don't need me So why is my glass half empty and why is yours so full
to the brim?

You drink when you're happy and I drink when I'm blue
And we sway when we're drunkard And we're drunkard almost all the time, yes we are

So we don't need them and they don't need us So why is their glass half empty and why is ours so full
to the brim?
