When my days are rolling stones
When my memories ring like telephones
And I'll have somewhere I can go
I'll have comfort, this one thing I know

That you, will pull another blanket round me
Yeah you, will pull another blanket round me

This is where I want to be
And this is where I want to be
She needs me
She needs me
She needs me
And it's ok

Silver thunder, turquoise stream
Leaves of amber, fields of emerald green
When you sketch all those shades on me
I am yours, you can do what you like with me

Yeah you, can pull another blanket round me
Yeah you, can pull another blanket round me

'Cause this is where I want to be
And this is where I want to be
Oh, she needs me
She needs me
Yeah, she needs me
And it's ok

This is where I want to be
This is where I want to be
(I can hold you)
This is where I want to be
Well this is where I want to be

I am yours, you can do what you like with me
I am yours, you can do what you like with me
I am yours, you can do what you like with me, with me

And faster than the setting sun
We'll run, away
