[50 Cent]

Yeh.. Shit 50 Cent.. GGG- G-Unit
(Em:Here we go again)

Shit make you mad when I switch my flow?
You can't understand where I get my dough
50 Cent is on fire cuz shady sed so
I'm on FIRE

[Eminem]

Everybody in a rush to try get the throne
I just get on the track to set the tone
I'm not trying to use my body as a stepping stone
But don't compare me, I'm better off just left alone
I'm ain't even trying to go there with record sales
I'm just trying to keep it humble and respect myself
Save it up
Keep stepping, in this rep D-12
Keep my nose clean and stay away from weapons and jail
And looking reckless
But if u check my belt
U may see something else that I use to protect myself
A vest to stop a ruben and deflect a shell
And send dem back at your ass faster then it left ur belt
And I don't even carry guns anymore cuz I don't got to
Got undercover cops that'll legally pop u
And I don't seen a lot of people cross the line
This muthafucker Ja must've lost his mind
That X got him thinking he was DMX
Then he switched to Pac and now he trying to be him next
So which one are you? X? Luke? Pac? or Michael?
Just keep singing the same song, recycle
We all much rather get along then fight you
Me and Halley dance to ur songs, we lyke u
And u really don't wanna step inside a mic dude
C'mon now u kno the white boy will bite u Hurt ur pride dawg and u kno I don't lyke to
But I will if I have to

With syllable laughter with syllable I just slap u [smack] killin u faster then u poppin pill after little pill of dem tabs that shit u on but if u want it then u got it you bump this shit too if we didn't diss u on it but if we lock on it so we can throw as harder then Busta
we bump heads to any mutherfucker that wants ta so whatsa deal?
So wheres all the tough talk?
When I walked up to ya lyke "Ja, what up dawg?"
Why didn't u say u had a problem then?
When u standing there wit all ur men
We could've solved it then
I'm a grown man dawg, come holla
All you did was lapdance, smile and swallow
Another one of those little X pills infront of me
And telling me 50 Cent was everything u wanted be

[Chorus x2]

I Know you want to be me
You know you want to be me
You talk so like me
You don't want to bump headz with me

[Tony Yayo]

you couldn't sun me if my father helped you my punchline is hot my balls will melt you Ja, you stupid little .. shelves will lift you Every other week I'm buying a new wristo
I clap at your ass with this chrome thirty eight Put six thru ur hats and seven and three eight Irv u aint shook knight u shook knight
I put my life in your whims knife
You kno and I kno who took your chain
You got robbed two times so ur ass is lame
I'm down to die for this shit all I need is bail
You better stick to the movies, Steven Spiegel

[Chorus]
