Fall, kneel and beg
Crying and blind
Just try harder
And you will find the way to everlasting sight
Don't take this light away, it never did you any harm
Just when i though i'd find my way
Pageantry are all the same
So here i am
Defiled and divine
Self respect should never have to bleed from my knees
Don't take this light away, it never did you any harm
Just when i though i'd find my way
Pageantry are all the same
Wait, wait, wait for something to happen
Wait, wait, wait to understand
Wait, wait, wait for something to happen
Wait, wait, wait to understand
I slip i grasp i always miss in cycles
Fallen angels never regain control
Fallen angels never fully regain control
