chorus

everytime i fall for your eyes like the raindrops fall from the sky everytime i hear your name in this loving game

there is something in the way your eyes talk to me
just as if they seem to say (stay here with me, baby)
(stay with me)

all i need is to express it all my echo listens
when i hear myself confess (you are my weakness)

chorus

i say, i say, i say
chorus x 2
chorus repeat to fade
