when i first met you babe i knew i had to have you i just wanted you to call me your bad boy baby blue i'm so glad i'll be loving you for ever it's kind of clever how we ended up in this situation we was working at the snack bar on my vacation admiration infatuation elation we were kickin it for the whole damn summer
from freinds
to best freinds
to part time lovers
now you're moving in the first date of september i can remmember when i saw you back in december it was so cold outside you was breakin up
and so was i and neither one of us wanted to give love a try but we would talk, talk, laugh and have a ball but then we got drunk and fooled around and had a booty call
a booty call aint nuthin wrong with a bootycall everybody like a bootycall now and then
sing
i can tell that were gonna be freinds

now were getting serious living together
we've had our ups and downs but you know that we'd whether the storm and if we ever had some fights they always ended up in the quiet storm, warm in the bedroom a lil bit of heat
and alittle bit of spice but no 2 people got along all the time alright so lets stick together like the Al Green song cause you always do make me fell brand new and ill always be lovin you my baby boo and only do i think that your sexy as hell, but your independent, strong willed, hard workin and i liked cha you like to step up to the party and get down on the dance floor like nobodys buisness the finest fish in the whole damn sea swimming with me

skinny dippin
with me road tripin with me but know she flippin on me yeah and im gonna tell you that that aint all she like to get freaky and fool around and have a booty call aint nothing wrong with the booty call and do you people want a booty call everybody need a booty call
hey babby you know i get off in a bought ten minutes you think you and i can hook up after the show
i can t3ll that were gonna be freinnds i can tell that were gonna be i can tell that were gonna be
are you ready for the booty call do you people want a
id bet youd like a booty call
you know what im sayin
