Flags flown at half mast
To remember all the lives past and gone Before their time had come From a hijacker's crash
A terrible blast
A building collapses
and falls to the ground

Who would have known?

So long and hard to make
So easy to break
Foundations quake
To rock your world

Planes exploding in the sky
No one knows the reasons why
Make me wanna cry

How hard it is to protect yourself
from hatred
you cant understand dedication to destruction is their unholy plan No corprate scenes
they move in a mist try to shake thier hands while their slicing your wrists killers beyond comprehentions of our minds how cowards could burn up blood in the skies blood in our eyes on 9-11-01

Hold my little baby tight

and find a way
to carry on

New York City on lock down
The whole east coast on lock down Hold your family close on lock down

Our country mourns the day so many bright lights young live were taken away forever and ever
And No one can replace and how can i forget this day

The day the devils died
To kill our loved ones
