Why let this world just wait on your shoulders?
Pick it up, push it off, before you let yourself get colder
Just look into the eyes, the good eyes of a child
And see that love rise like a river and float for a thousand miles

Gimme some, peace, love, happiness
(Peace, love, happiness)
Peace, love, happiness
(Peace, love, happiness)
Alright now, come on give to me

Breathin' deep, feel your heart beat
Just to know that life's worth living
Feel your feet on the earth
You better love it while it's still here spinning

I got no time to worry
About troubles or misgivings
You've let it flow, let yourself go
'Cause if you're hatin' then you sure ain't living

Gimme some, peace, love, happiness
(Peace, love, happiness)
Peace, love, happiness
(Peace, love, happiness)
Alright now, come on give to me

Looka here
Lotta people talking, need somebody to listen
Lotta people struggling
If you gotta ring the bells start giving little more

Peace, love, happiness
(Peace, love, happiness)
Peace, love, happiness
(Peace, love, happiness)
Come on now, come on give to me
You gotta give it up

I go and eat this daily bread
But so many people starving

How come the presidents just build more bombs
When nations start dissolving?

With all that money spent on guns
'Stead of food and education
Need to buy a little peace and love instead
Start the healing of the nation

Gimme some, peace, love, happiness
(Peace, love, happiness)
Peace, love, happiness
(Peace, love, happiness)

Come on sing it now, peace, love, happiness
(Peace, love, happiness)
Peace, love, happiness
(Peace, love, happiness)

Alright now, peace, love, happiness
(Peace, love, happiness)
Gimme some, peace, love, happiness
(Peace, love, happiness)

Peace, love, happiness
(Peace, love, happiness)
Peace, love, happiness
(Peace, love, happiness)

Peace, love, happiness
(Peace, love, happiness)
Peace, love, happiness
(Peace, love, happiness)
