It could be so nice but the world is not ready, yeah

It could be so nice but the world is not ready yo

Weather you're a black man

Or you're a white man

Or your from england or from japan

Or you're from chili or you're and american

You're from the middle east or you're and african

Well it could be so nice but the world is not ready, yeah

It could be so nice but the world is not ready yo

Now come on everyone on this place come together

Wouldn't it be nice if we could all live together forever

Finding our peach in unity

Destroying the noting of foolish vanities

Pull to rise

Lift the blinds

The funky dope is here in 1999

And we're praising so we're raising out of this oblivion

And on and on and on and on and on and on and on and on

You can't stop this with your mind tricks

Like neo in the matrix I'm chosen

Uplift with the gift

Like gandolf the wizard

I conjure a blizzard of magic to ride it high

Unified unified unified

Unified unified unified

It could be so nice but the world is not ready, yeah

It could be so nice but the world is not ready yo

They don't want it in their government

They don't want it with their politricks

They don't want it with their brainwash

They don't want it with their money fix

Unified unified unified

Unified unified unified

I want it want it want it want it

It could be so nice but the world is not ready, yeah

It could be so nice but the world is not ready yo
