Fall, kneel and beg
Crying and blind
Just try harder
And you will find the way to everlasting sight

Don't take this light away
It never did you any harm
Just when I thought I'd find my way
Pageantry are all the same

So here I am
Defiled and divine
Self respect should never have to bleed
From my knees

Don't take this light away
It never did you any harm
Just when I thought that I'd find my way
Pageantry are all the same

Wait, wait, wait for something to happen
Wait, wait, wait to understand
Wait, wait, wait for something to happen
Wait, wait, wait to understand

I slip, I grasp
I always miss in cycles

Fallen angels never regain control
Fallen angels never fully regain control
