

Boy Sets Fire "Never Surrender"

Long night is finally over, silent sounds like a choir and dead refrains sing out there warning, for the lose of desire but this could be our greatest moment in this trial of fire
we decide,

It's the pain that we share, lets us know were alive, while the world goes insane, we just try to survive are we setting examples or our bidding out time?
Till we die never surrender trembling arms holding each other, with more yesterdays yet to come Broken hearts drowned out by anthems of crimes condemned to be strung but this could be our greatest moment in this trial of

fire
we decide,

It's the pain that we share, lets us know were alive,
while the world goes insane, we just try to survive
are we setting examples or our bidding out time?
Till we die never surrender

We've suffered in shadows of the many but still we press on We've fractured our shoulders we result to rebuild what is gone
You claim victory as we suffer the cost

Time will pass and we will get older, bitterness fades away Though were strong but, we never would have chosen what we learned on that day I believe we can't wait till we die...never surrender...never again

It's the pain that we share, lets us know were alive,
while the world goes insane, we just try to survive
are we setting examples or our bidding out time?

It's the pain that we share, lets us know were alive,
while the world goes insane, we just try to survive
are we setting examples or our bidding out time?
Till we die never surrender

Never give in
