you've seen my desires live and die for you insighting a fire in a darkened tomb it's never enough, but i promise you i'll still be right here if you ever do i'm not gonna lie you know the truth

so believe me
please believe i've lost myself inside of you oh believe i always do the saying that lies in between two lines and if i could write, i would make it right but my witt can't retain what i thought i had and all that is left is my awkward stare

i'm not gonna lie you know the truth
so believe me

where ever you go please remember me as i struggle to kill this defending plea but if i stay true you will finally see that i've bled long enough, and my heart lives in dying pain

i'm not going to lie you know the truth
so believe me
please believe i always do
