I dialed 911 a long time ago.
Now I see how late they're reacting.
Here shakes a former lovers/husband,
And there lies the wife of a train wreck just waiting to happen
My God:
Make this a dream because I really can't believe that
she's gone
(I'm not here and this isn't happening)
Make this a dream because I really can't believe that
she's gone
(We'll wake up and she'll be next to me)

I can't believe that she's gone

Marvel as this madman, as this makeshift-monster rips through the room.
Watch in fear as he comes completely unglued.
Gaze in horror and amazement for a frightening instant
As he christens the walls with broken bottles of perfume.
Her few, final moments must have been a nightmare in waking Victimized, violently shaking.

My God:
Make this a dream because I really can't believe that
she's gone
(I'm not here and this isn't happening)
Make this a dream because I really can't believe that
she's gone
(we'll wake up and she'll be next to me)
Make this a dream because I really can't believe that
she's gone
(I'm not here and this isn't happening)
Make this a dream because I really can't believe that
she's gone
(We'll wake up and she'll be next to me)

I can't breathe...
(I don't deserve to take these breaths)

All I need
(Is to sit and rest my head)
On my knees
(The ambulance and police will be here soon)

I can't see

I CAN'T FEEL, numb to everything
I CAN'T FEEL, numb to everything
I CAN'T FEEL, numb to everything
Except my body shutting down as they enter my home.

Make this a dream, because I really can't believe that
she's gone
(Make this a dream, because I really can't believe that
she's gone)
Make this a dream, because I really can't believe that
she's gone
(Make this a dream, because I really can't believe that
she's gone)
MAKE THIS A DREAM, because I really can't believe that
she's gone
(Make this a dream, because I really can't believe that
she's gone)
MAKE THIS A DREAM, because I really can't believe that
she's gone

Make this a dream because I really can't believe that
she's gone
(I'm not here and this isn't happening)
Make this a dream because I really can't believe that
she's gone
(We'll wake up and she'll be next to me)
MAKE THIS A DREAM because I really can't believe that
she's gone
(I'm not here and this isn't happening)
MAKE THIS A DREAM because I really can't believe that
she's gone
(We'll wake up and she'll be next to me)
