Chorus:

mercury,
i believe your ocean is full of rippling,
mercury,
you don't see the waves are the same between you and me,
the moon pulls the same way on our strings, believe my instinct to untie you wings,
mercury.

i see the thunderstorm in your eyes, you see my purple-orange sunset sky, i know your confidence is hesitant,
i got a feeling from your hand, i think i understand.

i see the tidal wave deep inside, i know your hearts a slave to your mind, i know you better than anyone, i see the rocky ground ahead, don't go the easy route instead.

quick as a lightning bolt, you can turn from warm to cold, many stories still untold, unknown.

Chorus
