I have delusion of what we are,
there's no solution to cure my heart, i know what you feel and what you don't,
i know what you will and what you won't, and you don't hear what seems so clear.

chorus:

when you gonna see that i'm what you need, i'll wait 'til you believe it's me, what's it gonna take, when you gonna face, i'll wait 'til you believe.
there's no solution, it's much too hard, there's just confusion on both our parts, my understanding is that you know, that you feel something that you don't show, i wish that you could see it, too.

i keep you gazing,
that keeps me waiting,
this won't be fading away,
away.
