Can't you see it
They're taking turns
She's passing out
And the city burns

Still one and whole
They'll watch it flow
Computer games
And digital smoke, hey hey

Lalalala lalalalalala, we've got money to burn
La la la lalala, we've got money to burn

How does she go
When she gets to kiss
Does her head fall back
And does she look like this

And when you're making love
Do you grab her wrists
Do you feel her pulse
And does it go like this, hey hey

Lalalala lalalalalala, we've got honey to burn
La la la lalala, we've got honey to burn

We've got honey...

Did you hear this song
Did it go like this
Do we live a lie
Or sleep in bliss

Put your souls on, everyone

Just say it, say it
'Cause it's been so long
Yeah, it's been so long
And it comes and goes, yeah
Why nananananana hey oh

We've got nothing to burn

We've got money to burn, oh
We've got honey to burn, hey
We've got nothing...

Why nananananana hey so (x2)
We've got nothing to burn
