Woaaohohhoaha haha...

I'm pulling pictures off the wall
Watching smiles as they fall
Burning houses, breaking mirrors,
Throwing bombs at paper doors

I'm in a crowd and all I see
Are people that I'll never be
They live their lives too carefully
Wild horses running free

Been here too long
Picking up the pieces
Playing other peoples games
That never change

'Cause I've been pulling legs off spiders,
Walking faster
Flying higher than I've ever been before
And you can say I'm none the wiser
But I'd say, that I'd rather
Turn my back and search for something more
