"Over You"

From the moment that we met
I knew that we would connect
Your eyes had told me that
Somehow we shared a history

Feeling fearless I took a chance
Couldn't let the moment pass
I felt that fate had played a hand
And brought you here to me

But happiness can be short lived
(It can be short lived)
And pain can bring you to your knees

Don't think that I'll get over you
Don't know if I can make it through
My darkest days without you in my life
And I don't think that I can face the pain
I'll never see your face again
(I close my eyes and wonder when)
Will it ever end

Got as close as we could be
Felt that you could see through me
You read my mind, you knew my life
Became a part of me

Took for granted precious times
Thought we had it on our side
(By some cruel twist of fate)
I had to watch you fade away

(Don't think)
That I'll get over you
Don't know if I can make it through
My darkest days without you in my life
And I don't think if I can face the pain
I'll never see your face again
(I close my eyes and wonder when)
Will it ever end

Don't think that I'll get over you

Don't know if I can make it through
My darkest days without you in my life
(Don't think)
If I can face the pain
I'll never see your face again
(I close my eyes and wonder when)
Will it ever end

(Don't think)
That I'll get over you
Don't know if I can make it through
My darkest days without you in my life
(And don't think)
If I can face the pain
I'll never see your face again
(I close my eyes and wonder when)
Will it ever end

Don't think, don't know
(Will it ever end, will it ever end)
Don't think
(Will it ever end)
