Here I am waiting for a sign
I never seem to know if you want me in your life
Where do I stand, I just don't know
I never feel I know you 'cause you blow hot and you blow cold

It seems I've grown attached
Though we're not the perfect match
I just can't explain

Should I stay, should I go?
Could I ever really stand to let you go?
Can you now find the right words to say
That maybe I'm getting in your way?

I feel your warmth, got me wanting more You've left the door half open, I'm in two minds to explore
But then again am I being honest, being truthful to myself?
Can I see my life without you? Could I be with someone else?

It seems I've grown attached
Though we're not the perfect match
I just can't explain, oh

Should I stay, should I go?
Could I ever really stand to let you go?
Can you now find the right words to say
That maybe I'm getting in your way?

Should I stay, should I go?
I really think it's time that you should let me know
Can you now find the right words to say
That maybe I'm getting in your way?

It seems I've grown attached
Though we're not the perfect match
I just can't explain, oh

Should I stay, should I go?

Could I ever really stand to let you go?
Can you now find the right words to say
That maybe I'm getting in your way?

Should I stay, should I go?
I really think it's time that you should let me know
Can you now find the right words to say
Maybe I'm getting in your way?

Should I stay, should I go?
Can I ever stand to let you go?
Can you now find the right words to say
That maybe I'm getting in your way?

Should I stay, should I go?
I think it's time you let me know
Can you now find the right words to say?
