Du du de du du du du du etc early in the morning

my friends already calling headin' for a party they're just getting started wouldn't miss it for a moment my hearts already stolen heard he's gonna be there to miss it wouldn't be fair no no no no no no

Chorus:

when a woman wants her man she'll catch him any way she can

i'm tellin' you I got a masterplan im gonna get you boy make you my man du du de du du du du du du ...

driving down the highway

Roberta? Donnie Hathaway (yeahy yeah), playing on the airwaves

as we're making our way we pull up to a red light check the mirror for the last time (for the last time baby)

I know I'm looking just fine!

and I feel alright, 'cause I know i'm gonna party tonight, yeah baby yeah

Chorus

walking through the party with all my girls behind me (yeahy yeah) suddenly I saw him, my heart it started jumpin' (and jumpin, and jumpin'..)

then he led me to the dance floor, then he held me closely (so closely baby) then he whispered softly, will you be my one and only my only girl

Chorus

When a woman

When a woman wants her man
