Dry your tears... You can go forth alone."

The many things you have left for me.

Translation
Unable to even say good bye properly, I just hold back the tears
As if even any minute now your voice calling out could brush against me

Not even showing your pain, you were so beautiful
The father's day you vanished alone, leaving just a smile hanging in the air

"You can find the Neo Universe without tears nor any words."
I embrace your words

I'll take on the Neo Universe
without fears nor any doubts
Until someday when we can meet again

The memories inside my heart that will never fade away, forever
the fallen tears will soon change to snow

Ahead, where the crape-myrtle leads, you are laughing
This season, begun to fall, is my Father's Day

"You can find the Neo Universe
without tears nor any words."
I embrace your words

I'll take on the Neo Universe
without fears nor any doubts
We can surely meet again
Good-bye Dad

"You can find the Neo Universe
without tears nor any words.

Dry your tears...You can go forth alone."

I'll take on the Neo Universe
without fears nor any doubts
The many things you have left for me
Good-bye Dad

"You can find the Neo Universe
without tears nor any words."
I embrace your words

I'll take on the Neo Universe
without fears nor any doubts
Now I turn to face ahead always walking

Good-Bye Dad...
Good-Bye Dad...

Thank you Dad...
