Some take their hope
And hide it away
It burns in the darkness
Like gold in a grave

There's a spark inside
That can't be concealed
No hurt is so secret
That it won't be healed

So, before the night is over
Make your heart an open door
Then all we hold inside us
Won't divide us any more

So, before the night is over
And the time we have is done
Before our courage fades away
Let our hearts be bound as one

And I've lost my way
When nothing is clear
And I've been afraid to love
Then I hurt what I fear

I can face the night
Find strength in your eyes
Not afraid to fall
Not afraid to rise

So, before the night is over
Make your heart an open door
Then all we hold inside us
Won't divide us any more

So, before the night is over
And the time we have is done
Before our courage fades away
Let our hearts be bound as one

So, before the night is over
Make your heart an open door

Then all we hold inside us
Won't divide us any more

So, before the night is over
And the time we have is done
Before our courage fades away
Let our hearts be bound as one

Before the night is over
Let our hearts be bound as one
Before the night is over
Let our hearts be bound as one

Before the night is over
Let our hearts be bound as one
Before the night is over
