You brought me love, brought me light
You came and made everything all right
Finally the light of love
Is shining down on me

I had felt so low as low as I could go
With no one to rescue me
I was tired of being abused
Tired of being used

Only darkness
The sun went down on me
But then you shined love's light
It brightened the way for me

You brought, you brought me love, brought me light
You came and made everything all right
Finally the light of love
Is shining down on me

Now all I know is love
It's you I'm thinking of as the reason why
Now I believe that I can fly
'Cause your love makes me high

And I realize there's so much love in me
No way I could ever lose this heaven
As long as your love keeps shining

You brought me love, brought me light
You came and made everything all right
Finally the light of love
Is shining down on me

How could I ever show
You whatcha mean to my life?
You showed me that
I could love again, again

You brought me love, brought me light
You came and made everything all right
Finally the light of love

Is shining down on me

You brought me love, brought me light
You came and made everything all right
Finally the light of love
Is shining down on me

You brought me love, brought me light
You came and made everything all right
Finally the light of love
Is shining down on me

You brought me love, brought me light
You came and made everything all right
Finally, the light of love
Is shining down on me
