Oh yeah, here we go
Rip rock A.G, B 'n G
Chapter one
Tell 'em how the story goes

Every little thing that you said was true
I believed in you
But it wasn't meant to be

'Cuz every little thing that you promised me
Wasn't honestly what you said it would be
And I swear you'll never learn
So I'm giving you what you deserve
What you deserve

You've been living in a fantasy
If you think that you can be with me
You tried, denied and now you've got to move on, babe

Took a chance when you rolled the dice
Messed around but you didn't think twice
What's done is done, I want you out of my life
(That's right, hurry, that's right)

Every time the phone rings it's in your eyes
That you wear a disguise, oh, who could it be?
Now you think you can just take me back
But I'll never go back to what we used to be

And you say you've changed 'cuz you've cried
But it's time for me to draw the line
Time for me to draw the line

You've been living in a fantasy
If you think that you can be with me
You tried, denied and now you've got to move on, babe
(Oh no)

Took a chance when you rolled the dice
Messed around but you didn't think twice
(No, no)
What's done is done I want you out of my life

I want you out of my life
(Rip rock A.G, B 'n G)
I want you out of my life

You've been living in a fantasy
If you think that you can be with me
You tried, denied and now you've got to move on, babe

Took a chance when you rolled the dice
Messed around but you didn't think twice
(Oh, no)
What's done is done I want you out of my life

You've been living in a fantasy
If you think that you can be with me
You tried, denied and now you've got to move on, babe

Took a chance when you rolled the dice
(Oh yeah)
Messed around but you didn't think twice
What's done is done I want you out of my life
(B 'n G)
