There is a place in the heart of this city
A little sun comes shining through, yeah
For once in my life I can feel like
The sun is shining for me too

?Cause in my life
It?s never been this way before
Some thing's calling me, calling now
Yeah, it?s calling now

Did you ever think, well, love ain't right for me
Though you try and try
It's one of those things make you feel like
It's just not meant to be

?Cause in my life
I never felt this way before
But you call me, babe, call me now
Yeah, you call me now

You just call
Call me, babe, call me now
You better call me now

The other night I'm down at Slim's place
This melody comes drifting through, yeah
The thing is this song's got some blue eyes
And stands about five foot two

Now it's my life
And someone?s knocking at the door
?Cause you call me, baby, call me now
You better call me now

If you call
Call me baby, call me now
You better call me now

Call me, baby, call me, girl
Just call me, call me girl
Call me, call me now
Call me now

Call, call me, baby
