Funny
All she needs is love
And this Sony light
Is all there is tonight
Oh yeah

Funny
She dreams about his touch
Where his skin must end
And where her own begins

She moves through shadows
Bathes in the lush
Luxurious hush alone
Ever alone

Miss Lonely
Needs company
As she breathes this room
Of deepest blue perfume

Love's where you find it
Open your heart
You've lived in the dark too long
Too long alone

Miss Lonely
Open up your heart
Let the morning light
Fill your sky tonight

Funny
All she needs is love
And this Sony light
Is all there is tonight

Yeah right
Feeling so alone tonight
So inside
So deep inside
