Chorus: Whenever we agree together, the Holy Spirit starts to move, Whenever we agree together, His mighty power He will prove; " His children love each other, 'til their hearts become as one, And two or three agree together He has promised He will be there, And the work will be done. 'That night when Paul and Silas were in chains in the county jail, Somebody must have been agreeing', A mighty power began to fill the place, All their fetters fell off, and the doors opened wide, Perfect timing for a big earthquake! ~ Repeat Chorus' When just a few believers came together all in one accord, Somebody must have been agreeing', 'Cause the jail began to shake; No longer weak, they began to speak, She-kin-ah glory shining on each face! ~ Repeat Chorus 2 times' Tag 2 times: And two or three agree together, He has promised He will be there, And the work will be done.
