"Home Of Your Dreams"

Somewhere there's a country where the air is pure and skies are fair in blue it's the home of your dreams there's no war and there's no strife the hopes of all your life come true it's the home, the home of your dreams there is no violence there kids in the city square can dance and laugh and play without a single care there's music in the hills There's comfort and good will and peace again where love begins and never ends

it's a place where there's no fear where consciences are always clear and fair it's the home of your dreams there's no shame, abuse, or pain no ugly words will there profane the air

No one is ever sad Gone is the loss we had We'll do the things we always knew that we could do.

All the dying and the cares, the longing and the prayers, will all be done, and we'll be home Finally home
