"Evaporation"

The last time that I saw you was on stage in a video Alive and high kicking at Hammersmith O... so good
So good

I can close my eyes and picture movement so serene
Beauty in full motion a true whimsical princess...
Oh yes...

So good, so sensual
So good, so sensual, sensual, sensual...

Evaporation, evaporation, where did you go to?
Where did you go?
Evaporation, evaporation, I've really missed you
So much

Although a decade has passed I still think of you
It only seems like yesterday

I know you are no child but I can feel your innocence
When I visualise, in my mind, in my head, ooh yes!
I doubt if you'll ever know me
But it would warm so much if you did, oh if you did
You take all my breath away and send my pulse a racing
Into overdrive, you do... without fail

So good, so sensual

So good, so sensual, sensual

Evaporation, evaporation, where did you go to?
Where did you go?
Evaporation, evaporation, I've really missed you
So much

Not so much as a whisper you further the enigma
Although it seems like yesterday

If only I could talk to you
If only I could meet you

If only we could harmonise together
If only I could sing with you
If only I could breath you
Maybe we could harmonise together!

Evaporation, evaporation, where did you go to?
Where did you go?
Evaporation, evaporation, I've really missed you
So much
Evaporation, evaporation, it's good to see you back
Again
In the fold
Evaporation, evaporation, I've really missed you
So much

Don't stay too long
Don't evaporate
Don't evaporate...
