As unexpected fission in a far away foreign land
You took away my heart
But I couldn't take your hand
Floating on the mist by a willow-lined lake
You played the part of temptress
Or was it just my mistake?

To the backdrop of a chateau
And an antiquated mill
You enchanted soul
And I was captured until
I realised that fate was never on my side
Then you drifted out to view
And the moments magic died

Je croyais t'avoir vue
Je suis sur que je t'ai vue
Mais non, je sais que je t'ai vue
Je t'ai vu

I saw you in

Or were you just a passing shadow
Or were you just a passing dream
Tell me, were you just a passing shadow
Or were you just a broken dream

Or were you just a passing shadow
Or were you just a broken dream
