An hour ago, an hour ago
The world wasn't easy to live in, you know
I didn't have anyone I could love, so
I was even thinking about how to throw
Myself in a valley where nothing can grow
An hour, an hour, an hour ago

An hour ago, an hour ago
I didn't sing songs like hili-hilo
My life was a miserable Hollywood-show
My body was heavy and tired and slow
My heart was an igloo of ice and of snow
An hour, an hour, an hour ago

But now...
My life and luck has changed and I am glad again
I know I'm never going to be sad again
I've got a You, a You from who I steel a kiss
I didn't know a You could make me feel like this
I didn't know a You could change me so
An hour ago
