I wish I could go off far away
Where time moves too slow, day after day

I'll wait and I'll sit and watch the clouds
As they pass by
I'll wait and I'll sit and watch the clouds
As they walk by

I have a fixation with laziness
Procrastination is what I do best

I'll wait and I'll sit and watch the clouds
As they go by
I'll wait and I'll sit and watch the clouds
As they walk by

Where has my ambition gone? I haven't seen it for so long
Am I a burden to someone?
Life, I am so tired of everything
All my desire is vanishing

I'll wait and I'll sit and watch the clouds
As they go by
I'll wait and I'll sit and watch the clouds
As they walk by

I'll wait and I'll sit and watch the clouds
As they pass by
I'll wait and I'll sit and watch the clouds
As they walk by
