"DREAM AGAIN"

Visit "DREAM AGAIN" on MotoLyrics.com

I been through this morning when something new just called me

Then I can hear your warning but I'm so curious now

I like to feel this joy anew I like to feel it growing

My senses tend to analyse but I just want to fly

Why don't we dream again why doesn't time stand still

Why don't we dream again why doesn't time stand still

Tenderly and charming I want to keep this near me

So far this nervous trembling I can't resist to choose now

I like to feel this joy anew I like to feel it growing

My senses tend to analyse but I just want to fly

I never thought of trying to

I never thought of finding you

I never thought you could be true

Suddenly flying
