Pour some petrol
Through your letter box
Put all my memories
In an envelope
I'll set it on fire
I'll send it straight to you
When you get it
The least you could do

Is choke on
The smoke
And let me breath again (x7)

Because I know I never want to fucking see you again

I watched you burning
With the keys in my hand
You were screaming 'fucking let me go'
As you were turning black
The crowd go wild
And they signal applause
Well done for getting this far
Don't expect an encore when you

Choke on
The smoke
And Let me breath again (x7)

Because I know I never want to fucking see you again

Goodnight sweetheart
Can you hear what I say
I broke both your legs
You broke my heart today
You're lying in this bed
With your eyes tight shut
I'm lying next to you
Thank god I just woke up
