Now I just wonder why the star is shining so bright Please tell me, whom is there power of universe for Look at the ground
It's the world that seems to have lost light
Under starlit sky, we are in the cruel world

Dreadful mine
Refugees occur
Neverending confusion
Beware of the night
You'll feel the fear
You know the time has come

Oh, please forgive us who are sinful greedily
Cry out in the field
Realize in a disturbance

It's like walking through a minefield, we're caught in the dark
(Now I just wonder why I have to suffer the pain)
On through the night, You must pray to escape from the gloom
(Please tell me, whom is there a struggle with slackness for)
Look at the ground, it's the world that seems to have lost light (Face to the real but you don't give up Hardship will come)
Under starlit sky, we are in the cruel world
(Please tell me, whom is there a struggle with slackness for)

Search for the way
The way to your life
Ride on and don't be late
Beware of the night
You'll feel the fear
You know my time has come

Oh, the feeling of hate kills your heart and cracks your brain
Cry out in the field

And you fight for your life

Face to the real

But you don't give up

Hardship will come

No way to hide

A tragedy goes

They kill each other

You leave hell

And you for forward

You just hear the spell in the silent night

Prime of time is coming to the ground of the war

You just hear the spell in the silent night

Prime of time is coming to the ground of the war
