Rebel young, tracks to burn,
We take the glory, we belong.
Through the light of a million eyes, we know.
With steel and fire, leather and chains,
Live in the heart of a hurricane,
This innocent child is no more.

Together, forever, oh, let's rock the world
Oh, can't hold back -- no more

Soldier of Fortune, giving you no warning,
The whole world's watching, let it rock.
Soldier of Fortune, burning up the torches,
We are the Rebels, let it rock! (Soldier of Fortune!)

In the streets broken dreams,
Don't matter, we'll find the winds,
Fighting to win, never look down!

I need it, i feel it, the heat of a million eyes
Oh, lift me up, beyond the stars...

Soldier of Fortune, giving you no warning,
The whole world's watching, let it rock.
Soldier of Fortune, burning up the torches,
We are the Rebels, let it rock! (Let it rock!)

[Guitar Solo]

Soldier of Fortune, giving you no warning,
The whole world's watching, let it rock. (Whole world's watching!)
Soldier of Fortune (Soldier of Fortune!),
burning up the torches,
We are the Rebels, let it rock! (Let it rock!)
