On the sand dunes with you at midnight the melody of the waves
When we look at the sky, see, there's a chandelier of stars

I love you tonight;
I wish time would stop
A shooting star sparkles;
I want to tell you how I feel right now

Hold me tight and fly away,
stay together like this forever
I want your shining eyes to see every bit of me

My song for you, just only you
I love only you

The sea, unusual for this season, leaves only memories
The two of us, snuggling up close, see, are like swaying diamonds

I love you tonight;
I only want to be with you
My heart is shining;
I want to make my wish come true right now

You'll be my angel forever;
we'll chase after the same dream My shining eyes see every bit of you

My song for you, just only you
I only look at you

Hold me tight and fly away,
stay together like this forever
Your shining eyes see every bit of me

My song for you, just only you
I love only you
