Wakin up in cold sweats they call the police
Coz im a nightmare a nightmare x2

New york new york, standin ontop of them sky gases raekwon told me that I can spit, niggas feel me in the south, niggas feel me in the north, niggas gotta feel my style, you see them wheels on that porsche, its

the getaway car, in your dreams motherfucker, go to sleep and wake up to a beam mother fucker.

You havin nightmares about me

I haunt you in your nightmares you can't sleep
Wakin up in cold sweats they call the police
Coz im a nightmare a nightmare x2

Mirror mirror on the wall, should I stay or should I fall
Im still standing here x2

Put my motherfuckin 2's on, man im a fool holmes Walk through lil weezy & baby hood with all blue on Walk through jeezy hood with red, nigga my mind gone, im half dead half baked, my mind wasn't all there, a few screws loose is what the doctor told me, but I lived through surgery, and checked out after you sewed me up, you did you shit for snoop, nigga dre gon' come back, then he did that shit for pac, so nigga dre gon' come back, remember its game time, its still game time, still got my nine on me like the rob behind the finish line, i truck niggas, you dump truck niggas, I wanted to be a rock boy, then I woke up chigga,

Niggas keep havin' nightmares about me
I haunt you in your nightmares you can't sleep
Wakin up in cold sweats they call the police
Coz im a nightmare a nightmare
You havin nightmares about me,
I haunt you in your nightmares you can't sleep
Wakin up in cold sweats you call the police
Coz im a nightmare a nightmare
