Life aint fair, an sometimes i give back like the nike airs and thats when i go back, back where? to the block where the dreams never stop, coz its hard to dream when your dream is being on top an you already there, so you look down into the city an see life aint what it used to be, kids fantasize about how a phantom ride if you can attract a star then welcome to the enterprise, hop in a spaceship an fly fly away, past the clouds were marvin gaye and 2pac stay never wanted to come back like jam master jay matter of fact, close your eyes lets pass away

If you could see straight through my eyes if I left this world tomorro, say gudbye if you could take 1 thing with you, what would it be
If You, Could Be, With Me!

You wouldnt be hearing this if it wasnt for Lupe he inspired what i wrote, bought his album today an then i threw it in my car, let the CD play 'you are superstars' what the CD say and on the eve of this morning i write Stevie J, making love to the music like my Stevie play when i rap the hood listen, get on TV Jays and the devil try hard to see me break thats when i switch, switch cars and i cross my heart, knowing that im gods son like the belly of Nas i used to dream hard about being in battle with Nas even the ghetto Mosarc couldnt play that part like the Eli Mannings when they play that hard everybody aint a giant but they play that card and that card is delt, and them blows are felt like a Mayweather jab that land below the belt, yea!

If you could see straigh through my eyes
if I left this world tomorro, say gudbye

if you could take 1 thing with you, what would it be?
If You, Could Be, With Me!

Light a candle in the dark, and lead yourself to the light and when you there, blow it out so you can sleep through the night the sun rise in the morning an the future get bright bright as the ice in my ears, its like a movie premire an you can be Denzel coz your eyes _____ if you can memorise your lines without reading the script and you can walk through the forest while you standing still you might get lucky like force, 20 million to fill an with that you can buy yourself a football field build a field of dreams for kids, who got that skill marry a legend like jada , if u got that will laugh now cry later if you pop that pill seen far from a moment but its not that real coz your life is ice cold an you got that chill so tomorro wen you wake and you spend that will just remember wut i told you from on top that hill... its real

If you could see straight through my eyes
if I left this world tomorro, say gudbye if you could take 1 thing with you, wot would it be
If You, Could Be, With Me!
