Quick judger, long-time begrudger
Dialed in to the pyramid structure
Efficacious B-follows-A-cious
Something you can shove in their faces
Holding out for maximum missed time
The stereotype was right this time
Vague questions for showy answers
I think I'll take my chances

Ah, you've got me drinking in Canadian bars
Trade sad stories with the New England coast guard
Man you blew me off like there was no tomorrow
And here it is tomorrow
Here it is tomorrow
What the hell do you know?

I've seen the galaxies dance across the night sky
A billion years in one second gone by
I've sweated out, wanting every night
And I know the rules but it's not right
Lady M who never lets anything slide
A five-year-old blonde girl by her side
And I ask her "why have you brought her?"
"Young man, say hello to your daughter"

Ah, you've got me kicking off my shoes at the moon
Makes no difference if I don't get them back soon
God, you wrote me off like there was no tomorrow
And here it is tomorrow
Here it is tomorrow
What the hell do you know?
