Too awake for night I've come outside
Too o'clock for sleeping off, I've tried
Freezing air so good for how this is Such the opposite of show biz

Winter houses turning on the glow
Christmas based on Christmas long ago
How could I have known where this would lead?
Something that I never thought I'd need

Regenisraen, Regenisraen

Ends a luminescent color scheme
Mustard yellow and brick red between
Coastal cities glitter on the black
The wind blows across and back

Someone knows I cry to lose a friend
Go ahead and scare me with the end
Maybe I've become a patient man
Something that I'll never understand

Regenisraen, Regenisraen
