Here comes the light
Here comes the light
What were you doing there
Hidden from sight

Daddy look to the ground Creeping around
Deep in the Marram grass
Your ass/eyes peaking up like a shark fin

I hope you're never coming back, never coming back,
never coming back
I hope you're never coming back, never coming back,
never coming back
I hope you're never coming back, never coming back,
never coming back
I hope you're never coming back, never coming back

Here comes the light
Here comes the light
What were you doing there
Stiff and uptight

Sparring on strangers
With your lazy eye
Fixed on its own path
As I stray away from mine

I hope you're never coming back, never coming back,
never coming back
I hope you're never coming back, never coming back,
never coming back
I hope you're never coming back, never coming back,
never coming back
I hope you're never coming back, never coming back
